Ley lines are believed by many people to be a series of metaphysical connections that link a number of sacred sites around the world.

Essentially, these lines form a sort of grid or matrix and are composed of the earth's natural energies.

Earth energies and Ley lines have intrigued me and as such I have been doing some reading on the subject, many people ask what they are so I will share with you what I have found. The term Ley line is a fairly new one, given in the 1920s by a man called Alfred Watkins, who wrote about “the old straight track”.

Ley lines refer to straight alignments drawn between various historic structures and prominent landmarks.

The idea was developed in early 20th-century Europe, with ley line believers arguing that these alignments were recognised by ancient European societies which deliberately erected structures along them. Since the 1960s, members of the Earth Mysteries movement and other esoteric traditions have commonly believed that such ley lines demarcate "earth energies" and serve as Power points and ley lines are the main points and flow of subtle earth energies moving across the planet. These energies will be called subtle because they are not often noticed by our ordinary senses, though they can be sensed if one develops an energy sensitivity.

An energy vortex is a specific location on Earth which acts as a swirling center of energy, containing more earthly energy than any normal place would. One common belief in regard to energy vortexes is that they exist at the intersections of ley lines or the random lines of natural energy that make up the
