Mizner's Dream:The Built and the Unbuilt. By 1925, Addison Mizner (1872-1933) personified the idea of "Society Architect." His Palm Beach mansions for the wealthy and socially prominent created both a new architectural style and a new life style for America's preeminent winter resort. Born in Benicia, California, to one of the state's pioneer families, Mizner had traveled extensively in his early years.
